Special Olympics Ontario Kitchener-Waterloo is a completely volunteer driven organization that provides year-round opportunities in sports training and athlete competition for children and adults with intellectual disabilities.

Special Olympics is founded on the belief that people with intellectual disabilities can, with proper instruction and encouragement, learn, enjoy and benefit from participation in individual and team sports.

Special Olympics believes that through sports training and competition, people with intellectual disabilities benefit physically, mentally, socially and spiritually; and that the community - through participation and observation - is united in understanding people with intellectual disabilities in an environment of equality, respect and acceptance
